Parent / Guardian:

The College student leaders will be attending our Student Leadership Conference held at the Ocean International on Friday 16 February 2018, with all costs covered by the College.

This conference is designed to provide students with an understanding of

- their role and how they can motivate others
- the skills needed in their role
- the dynamics of working in a team
- how to improve their public speaking skills

They are required to wear their full formal uniform. Morning tea and lunch will be provided on the day. (please note: no outside catering is permitted to be brought into the venue). If your child has any special dietary requirements, they will need to see Mr Sorbello or they may wish to bring their own food.

The conference times are 8.45am – 2.45pm and students will be transported by bus to and from the College. They must arrive by 8.30am to have their names marked off the roll.

For your student to attend please complete the attached Permission Form and return it to the office by Tuesday 13 February 2018. Without this form completed they will not be able to attend.

Please contact me on 4969 4199 or by email on chris_sorbello@mercymackay.qld.edu.au if you would like any further information.

Kind regards

Mr Chris Sorbello
Assistant Principal, Students
